

PUBLIC SECTOR PENSIONS COMMISSION LAUNCH EVENT

7 JULY, 9 for 9.30am – 11.30am, INSTITUTE OF DIRECTORS

Dear Friend,

I would like to invite you to the launch of the Public Sector Pensions Commission's report, which will be held in the Burton Room at the Institute of Directors, 116 Pall Mall, London SW1Y 5ED, on Wednesday 7 July from 9 for 9.30am – 11.30am.

The Public Sector Pensions Commission (www.public-sector-pensions-commission.org.uk) has been set up as a result of an initiative from the Institute of Economic Affairs, the Institute of Directors and other groups and is chaired by an independent actuary.

The Commission's report will set out clearly how the costs of public sector pensions are far higher than the Government admits, how full transparency on costs will be essential if meaningful changes are to be carried out, and how a number of reform options could lead to substantial savings.

Refreshments will be served, and the event will be introduced by Miles Templeman, Director General of the Institute of Directors.

Other speakers will include:

- Peter Tompkins, Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries and Chairman of the Public Sector Pensions Commission.
- Neil Record, a member of the Commission and author of a number of authoritative studies on the true costs of public sector pensions.
- Philip Booth, Vice Chairman of the Commission and Editorial and Programme Director at the Institute of Economic Affairs.
- There will also be time for an in-depth Q&A.

If you are interested in attending, please email the Commission Secretary, Corin Taylor: corin.taylor@iod.com. Spaces are limited.

I look forward to seeing you on 7 July.

Yours,

Peter Tompkins, Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries and Chairman of the Public Sector Pensions Commission
